

New Goods!

Probably the strongest feature of this store is our fondness for selling New Goods. You never hear of old goods here. New goods come every day. We mark them at the known in this State, and sell them before they have time to grow old. That's the story of the success of this business, in a nut shell. Why should any one be willing to buy old goods, when we are selling the newest products of the world's mills, at prices that challenge any competition in the United States.

Wash Goods!

It may seem early to talk of cotton dress goods, but it is not too early to buy them. The stocks are now at their best, and many of the choicest effects will be sought in vain as the season advances. The counters of wash dress goods are towers of beauty, we never had the pleasure of showing a stock so grand as the present, and there certainly is nothing like it in this city. Not a yard was carried over from last season. French mulls, in floral and conventional designs, French organdies, printed nainsooks, swivel silk gingham, French cheries, French satens, will be strong this season, and deservedly so.

WOOL GOODS!

More than 100 different styles of strictly all wool dress goods will be found in our Dress Goods Dep't.

FOR MEN!

Do you have your shirts made to order, are you paying big prices for them? If you will read this "ad" and then come in and examine our stock of shirts, it will be money in your pocket.

45 CENTS.

A shirt equally as good, made to order, would cost you like this:

3 yds muslin, at 9c,	27
1 yd linen, at 60c,	15
Interlining,	06
Thread,	02
Making,	10
Laundry,	40
	$1.00

Clothing, Boots & Shoes AND RUBBERS, will be sold at greatly reduced prices for the next 10 days.

It is now probable the new palace steamers City of Alpena and City of Mackinac will leave this port for Detroit about five o'clock on Sunday and Friday mornings, next summer. The time card of the steamers has not yet been definitely settled upon.

Our thanks are due Mrs. J. F. Ellis, of Sutherland, Fla., for a fine specimen of orange, known as the shaddock, which weighed 53 pounds and measured 27 1/2 inches in circumference. In taste, the shaddock somewhat resembles a lemon, only not quite so tart.

The council met last Friday evening, but a quorum not being present no business could be transacted, and an adjournment was made until the next regular meeting, unless called sooner by the Mayor. The object of the meeting was to settle with the City Treasurer.

"Prosecuting Attorney Moloney," says the Presque Isle County Democrat, "states he is going to have editor Cunningham, of the Alpena Echo, sued for libel and brought up before a jury of his farmer friends, at whose hands he is sure to get a judgment. Look out, Doc." The trouble was caused by certain caustic remarks that the Echo made concerning Moloney.

The first shipment of staves from the new factory was made last Saturday, when a car load was sent to Minneapolis. The factory is the latest addition to Alpena's new industries, and makes the fifth, in addition to the lumber and shingle mills. The next industry we believe, will be furniture manufacturing, which has already been commenced on a small scale, and works promising.

The weather from the first of March until the 13th was exceedingly pleasant for this time of the year. The temperature was mild, and about half of the snow melted away. Sleighing was nearly ruined, and it looked as if winter had about come to an end. But Monday evening a change occurred, and a severe snow storm set in. Up to last night about six inches of snow had fallen.

Outside parties are making inquiries as to whether Alpena has good brick clay adjacent to the railway. About twenty years ago Richard Nailor had a large brick yard at his farm, a short distance outside the city limits, and many thousands of bricks were manufactured. It was operated but a season or two, as the demand for brick was not very extensive at that time. Since then all the brick used in this city have been imported. There is a good market in Alpena and the adjoining counties for brick, and a good brick yard would prove a paying investment, as well as keeping a large amount of money at home.

The case of D. Desjardins vs. the Thunder Bay River Locomotive Co. has been decided by the Supreme Court in favor of the boom company. Mr. Desjardins' land, near the Ox-Bow, in this city, was flooded by water from the river, and he commenced suit to recover damages, claiming the flood was caused by the Trowbridge dam. The boom company showed the flood was caused by the spring freshet. The case was tried some time ago in the Alpena Circuit Court, and was decided against Mr. Desjardins. He appealed to the Supreme Court, and that tribunal affirmed the decision of the Circuit Court.

Certain lands in this county were sold to the State for taxes of 1888, there being no other bidder. Since the sale J. A. Widner decided to buy the lands for the timber. He made known his want to the County Treasurer and offered the amount due for taxes on the lands, which were checked to him, but no deed was made out, as the Treasurer had no time to do so then. Since that event the original owner of the lands, Thos. Collins, paid the delinquent taxes and redeemed the lands, and Mr. Widner has petitioned the Supreme Court for an order to compel the County Treasurer to give him the deed of the lands as promised.

Last week Owen Fox shipped six car loads of limestone to Tawas, where it will be used for making lime. If the enterprise should Rev. F. A. Holtzhausen, of Hancock, Mich., has been engaged by the Epworth League to give his lectures "Luther, Wesley and Spurgeon," and "The Columbian Exposition," in the M. E. church, April 21st and 22d. Rev. Holtzhausen is eminently fitted to lecture on these subjects. He illustrates his lectures by the use of one of the very best dissolving stereopticons made in America.

The statistics of the Y. M. C. A., for the month of February are as follows: Attended rooms, 1,959; daily average 73. Attended gymnasium, 625; daily average, 24. Baths taken, 131. Letters written, 48. Gospel meetings held, 4; average attendance 38. There were three meetings of the debating club, with an average attendance of 20. New members, five; renewals, five. Total membership, 204.

The adjourned meeting of the Alpena County Agricultural Society took place at the Council Room last Saturday afternoon. There was considerable discussion in regard to society business. A committee was selected to confer with the Board of Supervisors in regard to the county taking possession of the fair grounds and paying the bonded indebtedness. The election of officers was postponed until a meeting in June.

The members of the Michigan State Press Association will arrive in this city on the 7th of July, by one of the new palace steamers of the Detroit & Cleveland Steam Navigation Co. The editors will be enroute to Chicago to visit the World's fair. At Chicago the Association have secured quarters at the well known Hyde Park hotel, situated four blocks from the fair grounds. It is one of the finest hotels in Chicago.

"Is was a surprise to me," said a commercial man last week, "to see the great number of loaded teams that come to this city. I counted 53 that passed me in one hour." "What were they loaded with," asked a comrade. "With cedar, pulp wood, tan bark, elm bolts, excelsior wood and spool timber. One man who claimed to have kept record said 250 loaded teams traveled along the same place where I saw the teams during that half day."

We are pleased to state to our readers that J. W. Small has the exclusive agency of Alpena, for the popular and valuable book entitled "Family Treasurer," which is in prose and poetry, and gives many household anecdotes and thoughts of the household. The work was written by Tryson Edwards, and is a very valuable addition to any library. Mr. Small is now canvassing the city, and we trust the people will give him a liberal share of orders for this excellent work.

James Davison, of Bay City, the ship builder, has sold two of his large steamers to J. C. and F. W. Gilchrist. The vessels are the City of Genoa and City of Naples, and the price paid for the two steamers was $280,000. The crafts were built last year, and greatly exceed all wooden vessels afloat. They are equipped with the most modern machinery, such as triple expansion engines, steam windlass and steam steering gear, and are regarded as the fastest wooden vessels afloat.

The Au Sable Press says: "The Manic Vase Dramatic Company, of Alpena, consists of a jolly lot of young people who are striving for fun—and they have it. They presented a very creditable performance last night, for an amateur company. The members are all members of the Happy Home Club, and J. L. Currier, president of the dramatic company, is also president of the Happy Home Club. The audience was not a large one, but they seemed to appreciate the efforts of the company."

The meeting of the officers of the Third regiment, Michigan State Troops, was held at Bay City last Wednesday. There were present representatives from the companies stationed at Flint, Saginaw, Owosso, Port Huron, Alpena, Bay City and Cheboygan. The first ballot for colonel resulted in the election of Colonel C. R. Hawley. C. L. Boynton was elected Lieutenant Colonel, and E. Schmidt, Major. The Alpena Guards were represented by Lieutenant W. A. Prince. Captain W. D. Hitchcock was out of town, and was thus unable to be present at the election.

The case of D. Desjardins vs. the Thunder Bay River Locomotive Co. has been decided by the Supreme Court in favor of the boom company. Mr. Desjardins' land, near the Ox-Bow, in this city, was flooded by water from the river, and he commenced suit to recover damages, claiming the flood was caused by the Trowbridge dam. The boom company showed the flood was caused by the spring freshet. The case was tried some time ago in the Alpena Circuit Court, and was decided against Mr. Desjardins. Last week Owen Fox shipped six car loads of limestone to Tawas, where it will be used for making lime. If the enterprise should prove a success it is probable that a large amount of the stone will be quarried in this city and shipped to Iosco county for making lime, and will give employment to considerable labor here. In the past the Iosco lime men have imported the limestone they used from Kelley's Island, in Lake Erie. The Detroit, Bay City & Alpena railroad have given a very reasonable rate for car loads of stone from this city to Tawas, and the money that used to be sent to Kelley's Island will come to this city, as well as giving the railroad more business. The stone exporting industry of Mr. Fox has been a large one this winter.

John Oliver, the owner of the boiler works on State street, has been extensively engaged at repairing boilers during the past winter, and he will have all he can do to complete his contracts by the opening of navigation. Among other work he overhauled all the flues to the boilers of the Minor Lumber Co. mill, and those of the tug Arthur D. and Fred B. On the tug Ralph extensive repairs have been made, comprising new legs all around the inside of the fire place, and a new piece on each leg in front. Also, a new piece on the throat sheet on the flue, and a new crown sheet. The crown sheet is not yet riveted to its place, but the work will soon be completed. All the flues will be overhauled. The rest of the Ralph's boiler is pronounced by the boiler makers to be in good condition, and is not in need of repairs.

An interesting law case has resulted from a dispute as to whom is entitled to have possession of the store on Second street, near the A. B. O. office. Bernard Kramer occupied the store for several years as a merchant tailor's establishment. His lease extends until the latter part of the present year. A few weeks ago he was burned out and the insurance agents acted as if they considered the building a total loss. G. N. Blackburn, the owner, set men to work to rebuild the store, and has leased it to H. H. Wittelschofer. Mr. Kramer claims the store until his lease expires, and his claim not being recognized, he applied to Judge Kelley for an injunction to prevent other parties from taking possession. The matter is now in the hands of the Court. If the decision is that the building was a total loss, then there is a liability for violation of the fire ordinance by rebuilding the wooden structure, and if it was only a partial loss, then Mr. Kramer's claim seems good. The question is a complicated one.

G. R. Wendling delivered his lecture, "The Man of Galilee," at the Opera House, last Thursday evening, being the fourth entertainment of the Y. M. C. A. star course. In discussing the life, mission and character of the Savior, he did not do so in a religious sense, but took the same course a person would take in regard to analysing a man. He showed how immeasurably was the Savior to any human being, in his actions, teachings and demeanor, and proved beyond a doubt his superiority to any member of the human race, either of the past or present.

His character was without a blemish, his love for humanity was boundless; his record showed he was free from indecision, from fear, from anger, selfishness, and that his chief characteristic was love for fallen men and women, and his whole doctrine that of making the human race better. His doctrine and teachings had been adopted all over the world. The lecturer in beautiful and logical language, drew such a fair and unblemished picture of the Man of Galilee, and submitted such unimpeachable evidence to support the claims he made, that he could not help but believe that Jesus of Nazareth was of divine origin, for no man on earth has yet shown such a record as that portrayed of the Savior by the eloquent lecturer. Mr. Wendling is one of the most pleasing and eloquent orators who have appeared in this city, and his audience was delighted at the intellectual feast he had so bountifully prepared for them.
